Mittaw, July 26. N. S.

THE last Letters from the Saxon Camp near Riga gave an Account, that they made Preparations to repass the Dwina this day, so that we may expect every hour to hear of their having attempted it. The Swedes continue in their Camp on the other side the River, which they have very well fortified, and have raised several Batteries to hinder the Saxons from coming over the River. Divers Noblemen of Poland are passed by this Place, going to attend the King of Poland at the Camp near Riga; and a great many Wagons are gone through this Place with Ammunition for the Saxon Army.

Warsaw, July 27. The Cardinal Primate is gone from hence to his House at Radzowic, and intends, after a short stay there, to go to Dantzick. The Sieur Oginsky is returned to Lithuania, and 300 new-raised Soldiers were sent from hence this week to the Saxon Camp in Livonia.

Copenhagen, Aug. 3. The Confederate Fleet sailed from before this Place on the 28th past, and Anchored in the King's Diep. The King of Sweden is at Malmoe, where about 12000 of his Forces are encamped, besides 14000 who embarked some days ago on 150 Transport-Ships, and 12 Swedish Frigats are appointed to convoy them, in order to make a descent in Koge-Bay, about three Danish miles from this Place, but the Wind being contrary, they have not yet appeared on this Coast. The Swedes at the same time make Preparations for another Transport of Forces from Gottembourg to Jutland. The Danes are putting themselves in a posture to hinder their landing, having raised several Batteries, and placed good Guards along the Sea-Coast. A Body of Forces are encamped near this City, who are said to be 10000 strong; And 'tis reported, that the new Levies that are making, and the Militia which are drawing together, will encrease the number of the Troops in this Island to above 20000. Two English and three Dutch Men of War sailing lately to Gottembourg, met in the Kattegat with four Danish Merchant Ships coming from the North Sea, whom they permitted to pass without any disturbance.

Vienna, July 28. The Emperour intends to go to Neustad in 5 or 6 days, and the Elector Palatine is expected there about a fortnight hence. On the 24th Instant, the Imperial Court were entertain'd at the Palace at Favorita with a Turnament, performed by the King of the Romans, Prince Leopold Dietrichstein, and divers other Persons of Quality. The Turkish Ambassador was invited, and some of his Servants having behaved themselves rudely, and broke into the Emperour's Garden, he caused one of them to be hanged the next day, and the rest to be severely punished. Letters from Constantinople of the 19th of the last Month give an Account, that several Articles were agreed between the Envoy of Muscovy and the Turkish Ministers, in order to a Prolongation of the Truce between the Czar and the Grand Signior; And an Express was dispatched to the Czar for his Approbation thereof.

Berlin, July 31. The Forces of the Elector of Brandenburgh continue encamped near Lentzen. The Fortifications of Lockenitz, which Place commands a Pass between the Territories of Sweden and Brandenburgh in Pomeren, are ordered to be repaired and augmented, and Directions are given to send for some Troops from Prussia to reinforce the Garrisons of the Elector's Frontier Towns on the side of Pomeren. The Count of Lowenhaubt is gone from hence with the Character of his Electoral Highness's Envoy to Stockholme, in the room of Count Dhona, who is returning home.

Francfort, August 4. A Diet of the Circle of the Upper-Rhine is shortly to meet at this Place, and Directions are given for the Troops of this Circle to draw together, in order to their being reviewed. The Elector Palatine, after a short stay at Heydelberg, continued his Journey to Vienna. A Detachment of his Forces in the Palatinate are directed to be in a readiness to march upon the first Orders they shall receive, but it is not yet known what Service they are to be employed in. The Great Master of the Teutonick Order is gone to the Baths at Swalbach. Prince Lewis of Baden is shortly expected from Rastat at the Fort of Kiel, to view the Fortifications of that Place.

From the Confederate Camp near Segeberg, Aug. 5. On the 30th past there was a Skirmish between the advanced Guards of the Confederate and Danish Armies, and several were killed and wounded; Since which there has been another Rencounter between two Parties, in which 6 or 7 were killed on either side. Several Conferences have been held at Bramstede, between the Ministers of the Princes and States concerned in the Affair of Holstein; but we do not hear any thing is yet concluded on, and most of the said Ministers are returned to Hamburgh, where they are to continue their Conferences. The Duke of Holstein Ploen, who was present at some of these Meetings at Barmstede, has been since to attend the King of Denmark at Geluckstad, and is returned hither.

Hamburgh, August 6. Most of the Ministers concerned in the Negociation for accommodating the Affair of Holstein, are returned hither from the Conferences at Barmstede. We hear, that the Pretensions of the several Parties are put into the hands of the Mediators. The King of Sweden and the Duke of Holstein demand, That Things be re-established on the foot of the Treaty of Altena, and the Duke of Holstein left undisturbed in the Possession of his Rights; That the Fortress Christianpreys be demolished, as being too near the Town of Kiehl, and that the Swedes and Lunenburghers be reimbursed the Charges they have been at; The Danish Mini-
